Praise Report

Strong and powerful greetings to you in the Name above all names! I wish you an awesome Christmas and holiday season sprinkled liberally with the liberating truth and love of the One true Savior, Jesus Christ. May He stand head and shoulders above all the shopping and rushing around we all do this time of year. This is both my Christmas Letter to you as well as the Strong In Spirit Prayer Letter combined this year.

As I reported in the last quarterly Prayer Letter, the Transformation Ministry Seminar is now done and ready to present in order to train people in how to help set the captives free and heal the brokenhearted. It is a powerful presentation. I have now presented 2/3rds of it in a 'dry run' to a small handful of friends last month and it was very well received. I will be presenting the full TM Seminar on four evenings in January in the Knoxville area. In addition to that, there is a move in the works to bring me out to the San Francisco area and present the Seminar to a group of believers there. I am excited about both presentations scheduled for early next year and for the new doors the Lord will be opening in the future.

I thank you so very much for your intercession on behalf of myself and this ministry because it seems things may be about to break wide open and our prayers be answered! In the last month, I have received unsolicited prophetic words that are very encouraging and indicate that God may be ready to open new doors and release His favor in greater measure upon this ministry. This is some of what I've been given...

"You're a trainer and an equipper. Because you are, the Lord will see to it that you are going to equip the next generation and get them ready. I see you ice fishing and there's going to be treasures you're going to pull out of that hole as deep calls unto deep. You need to be ready for some quick right turns because you're at a point of change, real change and quick change. Put your keys into your motorcycle and start it because you are going to take off and things were going to move quickly! A lot of new things are coming; a lot of things are going to be re-arranged for you. It's like your furniture being set in order, and you know without a doubt it's going to be God doing it, because you've known it for a long time, but it's not been the season for it, but it's coming quickly; the season is almost upon you. I see you walking down a road and the fields on both sides were absolutely laden, ready and ripe with fruit; it is the harvest you're going to bring in. I see a lot of freedom coming for people. I see new things rising up. Be ready for those quick right turns because they're coming quicker than you know. Just when you've made it through one, be ready for another one; be ready at all times, in season and out of season. You are a man who really loves the truth and I see Him taking you places like a pioneer."

Needless to say, I'm excited about what God has in store for this ministry as well as for you as we approach a New Year - may it be a time of great fruitfulness in your life and mine for the glory of the Lord!

Prayer Needs

My prayer needs have not changed much, so please continue interceding for the following...

- † That many copies of the book, 'Living The Strong In Spirit Way' will be bought and the message will spread far and wide and make it into the hands of those who need it most.
- † That I will be given sufficient funds to live on, pay ministry expenses with and publish other books with, as well as for traveling to the nations.
- † For wisdom and discernment in dealing with people and ministries and for God to order my steps for His glory.
- † For faithful financial supporters, ministry advocates and intercessors for Strong In Spirit Ministries.

May God bless you and lead you for His glory! ALL His very best to you, Bruce
